

19

17

18

20

25

- 1: set window for truncation.
- 2: truncate data on display to bounds specified by 1.
- 3: zoom in and out of data on display.
- 4: pan through data on display.
- 5: clear data.
- 6: display next or previous spike on display.
- 7: open window 21.
- 8: open window 18.
- 9: open window 19 on first click, then after window selected, open window 17.
- 10: save data to nwb file.
- 11: select first .continuous file to concatenate.
- 12: select second .continuous file to concatenate.
- 13: select metadata file to attach to concatenated file.
- 14: save concatenated file.
- 15: window of data to concatenate for each selected file.
- 16: save event to current file.
- 17: add name and description and save event selected from window 19.

- 18: select plot background color, plot line colors and gridlines.
- 19: visually select event beginning and end timestamps.
- 20: display event highlighted.
- 21: concatenation window.
- 22: select nwb file to open.
- 23: select open ephys directory to open.
- 24: plot selected file.
- 25: file open window.

Source Code Structure

Classes:

Button_icons:

- Stores icons for buttons, images stored in images folder.

conc_files:

- Stores the data selected from 21, and the function triggered from selecting button 14

event_storage:

- Stores window selected by 19, flag selected by 9 and the data selected from 17
- Stores function triggered by 16

Channel_window:

- Stores all buttons for the main window,, data from selected file and information for the selected plot window and settings.
- Stores functions for zooming, panning, spike panning, truncate, add event, select files from 21 and plotting.

GUI:

- Stores window 25.
- Entry point of program